Agriculture in Capitalist Europe, 1945–1960

From food shortages to food surpluses

Edited by Carin Martiin, Juan Pan-Montojo and Paul Brassley

Series: Rural Worlds: Economic, Social and Cultural Histories of Agricultures and Rural Societies

This volume brings together scholars working on this period of dramatic technical, commercial and political change in agriculture, from the end of the Second World War to the emergence of the Common Agricultural Policy in the early 1960s. Their work is structured around four themes: the changes in the international political order within which agriculture operated; the emergence of a range of different market regulation schemes that preceded the CAP; changes in technology and the extent to which they were promoted by state policy; and the impact of these political and technical changes on rural societies in western Europe.
