Part B. CV SUMMARY (max. 3500 characters, including spaces)

Doctor in History from the USC and Extraordinary Prize with the doctoral thesis The heritage of the High Nobility in Galicia, 17th - 20th centuries: the house of Alba (1994), directed by Dr. Ramón Villares. She is currently a tenured professor of Contemporary History. She completed her training with stays at various research centers, such as the Institute of Historical Research of London, the Institute für Geschichte (Univ. Of Darmstadt), or the Università degli Studi di Bari.

From the field of Agrarian History, her research focused on the trajectory of elites and land ownership in Galicia in the transition from the Old Regime to the new liberal order. Among her publications stands out the monograph, Lordship and provincial property of the high nobility in Galicia, 16th - 20th centuries: the House of Alba (1996), awarded with a second prize in the call for the XXIII "National Prize for Agrarian Publications.

Part C. RELEVANT MERITS (sorted by typology)

C.1. Publications (see instructions)

From the set of publications referred to below, I highlight the monographs published since 2004, the chapters from 2001 and 2002, as well as the articles 2002, as they form part of a line of research focused both on the dynamics that followed the ownership of land, its forms of tenure and peasant exploitation in Galicia between the Old Regime and the first third of the 20th century, as well as the different kinds of conflict that accompanied these dynamics at each stage.
